- Decorators are currently in.

New Curtains are coming

Next project is to improve storage and replace the windows and doors but this is a major expenditure and will be grant aided.

- Nikki Moore manages the bookings for the hall and keeps it spick and span. Huge thanks.

She has undertaken some market research comparing prices and facilities with other halls. We are at the upper end, so some adjustments have been made to our pricing

We have plenty of room to accommodate more classes and activities

We are very generous with discounts for locals hiring

- Many thanks to Andy Gadd & Helen Brown for the grounds care

- Next village event is Fireworks Sunday 11 November + WWI Centenary Beacon

- A new tree Acer Drummondii has been planted in memory of Keith Gadd which Pam & Andy can see from the farm.

- There is garage space to rent.

- Call for new trustees – more committee members needed to help promote the hall and organise more community activities. Meet 3 or 4 times a year. If you'd like to help us make the most of this tremendous Hall, please get in touch.

- Next meeting, also the AGM, 3 September
